Dear [redacted]

Hearty congratulations on the occasion of your imminent retirement on 3 December 1986 from the Central Intelligence Agency and Foreign Broadcast Information Service to which you have devoted over 25 years of exemplary service.

Your institutional knowledge of Cuban government and politics gained over these many years has proved to be a valuable asset which will be sorely missed upon your departure. Your seemingly boundless energy and sincere dedication and devotion to duty have been a source of inspiration for your co-workers and supervisors alike. Although I have not had the pleasure of meeting you personally during my brief tenure as director, staffers here in Headquarters have nothing but the highest praise for your unstinting efforts on behalf of the Intelligence Community.

On behalf of your colleagues in FBIS and the Agency, I wish you and Emma a most joyous life of leisure during your well-earned retirement.

Sincerely,
